ART PROPOSAL REVIEW CONTINUES WITH SECOND SET

Wishard invited Indianapolis to view the second set of art proposals for outdoor locations at The New Wishard from April 22 through May 6. Wishard displayed proposals at Earth Day Indiana on April 23, followed by a 2-week public comment period and a closing exhibit as part of IDADA's First Friday. Displays were up in Wishard's Sunshine Hallway, at City Market and online at TheNewWishard.org. Wishard plans to select a small number of proposals for commissioning. Wishard displayed proposals for the first set from March 21 through April 1, following an unveiling on March 18.

Art has been an integral part of the healing environment at Wishard since T.C. Steele and others first installed murals in 1914. Wishard will review the comments to ensure art in The New Wishard closely aligns and connects with the greater Indianapolis community.

City-County Councillor Angel Rivera joined Wishard, project, arts and community leaders to unveil the proposals on March 18 at City Market.

PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT BUILDS FOR THE NEW WISHARD

The Wishard Foundation has received a number of significant philanthropic contributions for The New Wishard Capital Campaign over the last several weeks. Robert and Gina Laikin have provided naming gifts for the Surgery Waiting Room and Intensive Care Unit Waiting Room. Ann Stack and Dr. Chris Stack have provided a naming gift for an Operating Room. Brightpoint has provided a naming gift for the Dining Room. Tim and Denny Solso have provided a generous gift. Wishard is tremendously grateful for these gifts supporting The New Wishard.
